Why your fundraising matters

Here's how your fundraising can make a difference throughout our community:

£10

can purchase books and toys for the Children's Room, creating a comforting environment for families to spend time together.

£20

can fund a bereavement counselling session for a patient's loved one, providing them with much-needed support at the toughest time.

can fund a visit from one of our community nurses to support a patient and their family at home.

£50

can fund art or music therapy sessions in our Wellbeing Centre, enabling our patients to learn new skills and express themselves.
